Santa visits children with disabilities

JACKSON – Santa will join children with disabilities and their families at a Christmas party Friday, Dec. 12, from 6 to 8 p.m. Santa will arrive at 6:30 p.m.

The event is sponsored by and for the consumers of the Jackson office of Children's Rehabilitation Service (CRS), a division of the Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services.

Children with disabilities and their families will enjoy a hearty Christmas meal. Then the children will take pictures with Santa and receive the picture in a frame as a gift from CRS . This annual event usually has about 100 attendees.

It will take place at the Children's Rehabilitation Service office at 1506 College Ave.

The Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services is the state agency whose mission is to enable Alabama's children and adults with disabilities to achieve their maximum potential.
